

God creates the woman for the man.

God creates the woman for the man. See Genesis 2:22 Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man. 1 Corinthians 11:9 neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. This implies that the woman God prepares for a man to marry is the one and only perfect match for him. Others may be close, but she is perfect. This would also indicate that this man is the one who is most perfect for the woman. Implied in this concept is the probability that long and successful marriage is highly predicated upon a man marrying the woman created for him.

The importance of a woman being created for a man in no way diminishes the importance of the man forming his wife to more perfectly match him through the words he speaks to her.

The God Introduction:

A man knows who he is supposed to marry the first time he ever sees the woman. He will be compelled to stare at her and he will not know why he is staring. He will look away and then find himself right back staring at her. This is a very surreal experience. It is like time stands still. He will be compelled to find out her name and to get to know her. This experience last only so long as the couple are in eyesight of each other.

I believe for the woman the experience is very similar but since I am not a woman I have never had a God introduction experience from a woman's perspective. The few women I have asked have reported it to be very similar. Now all people remember this experience taking place.

Once God has made the introduction He works to bring the couple together. God continues to work to bring the couple together as long as they remain single and unattached in another relationship. Sometimes God is able to bring couples together relatively quickly and sometimes it takes years.

Form what I have observed, God does not make introductions while one person is in a relationship with a not God introduced person (dating the wrong person).
